Friday, Morning, Nov. 8, ::: 1872 TO OUR PATRONS!

The election ever, we expect now to devote our time to making our paper of more interest to the general reader. We ask our friends to interest themselves from the present time until the first of the coming yes to extend the circulation of the JEFFARSONIAN. City papers are now getting out flaming prospectuses with large promises for the year 1873. We will promise that our paper shall "take no step backward" so far as improvement is concerned. Studendous Republican Majorities We believe our past will guarantee what our future will be in this respect. We hope no one-and cer- MAINE, 18,000 tainly no Republican-will interest himself in procuring subscribers for a foreign paper until he has done New Hampshire, 5,000. all in his power for his local paper. We are often complimented by stran gers on the size and fine appearance of our paper. The patrons of the Vermont, 30,000 paper may rest assured that further improvements will be forthcoming. Again, the elections over, and we expect to give our attention to our outstanding accounts on subscription, advertising, &c. We wish to commence 1873 with a clean balance sheet. There are four thousand dol lars scattered over the county in small be very useful to us. Between now and the first of January next an account will be made out and presented to every one indebted to us.

And still again, our terms read "82 per sonum in advance." If the 2000 subscribers of the JEFF. would Pennsylvania, 125,000 between now and Jan. 1st, renew on that plan (and that is the only way in which they can get a city paper) we should be able to introduce greater improvements in our paper than the most sanguine could expect.

There are few laggards on our list, and we expect there will be none after the next sixty days. As you drop in to pay your taxes, call and in during the week as they come to the Postoflice. Let us settle
